

West Midlands Institute of Psychotherapy

New Membership Categories

Professional Members

Psychoanalytical psychotherapists, Jungian analytical psychotherapists, psychoanalysts and Jungian analysts who have qualified through the WMIP trainings or other recognised trainings which are eligible for registration with UKCP (CPJA college) or BPC; child psychotherapists registered with the Association of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapists (ACP).

Application requirements:

- Proof of insurance
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending

The following are not required from those who have completed a WMIP training:

- Proof of qualification and registration with UKCP/BPC
- Two references, one from a UKCP/BPC registered supervisor
- CV
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £50

Benefits:

- Registration/accreditation with UKCP, BPC or ACP.
- UKCP/BPC re-accreditation
- Opportunity for inclusion on UKCP Supervisors Directory
- PEP-Web
- Inclusion in the WMIP online directory and referral service
- WMIP voting rights
- Free and discounted CPD provision
- CPD monitoring service
- Mediation service for dispute resolution through the Ethics Committee
- Special interest groups and opportunities
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Journal (currently suspended)
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Opportunities to teach, write, present and publish and participate in research
- Opportunity to become a Training Supervisor or a Training Therapist
- Opportunity to chair a WMIP committee or become a Trustee
- Use of library

Fees: £320 per annum

Clinical Associate Members

Those working clinically in private practice, in the NHS or a mental health charity as a psychotherapist, psychologist or counsellor, with a professional psychodynamic qualification and registered with UKCP, BPC or BACP. Other modalities will be welcome to apply if they can demonstrate that they have a particular interest in analytic thinking or have completed further psychodynamic or analytic training.

Application requirements:

- Proof of qualification and registration with UKCP, BPC or BACP
- Two references, one from a UKCP, BPC or BACP registered supervisor
- CV
- Proof of insurance, or if employed, proof of employment
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £50

Benefits:

- PEP-Web
- Inclusion in the WMIP online directory (at additional cost of £50 annually)
- WMIP voting rights
- Free and discounted CPD provision
- Special interest groups and opportunities
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Journal (currently suspended)
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Opportunities to write, publish and participate in research
- Opportunity for involvement as a member of a WMIP committee
- Use of library

Fees: £160 per annum

Student Members

Those currently engaged in one of the WMIP trainings or other recognised training which is eligible for registration with UKCP (CPJA college), BPC or ACP.

Application requirements (for those not undertaking a WMIP training):

- Proof of membership of a recognised training organisation (see above)
- Two references, one from a current training supervisor
- CV
- Proof of insurance (if applicable)
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £25

Benefits:

- PEP-Web
- WMIP voting rights
- Free and discounted CPD provision
- Special interest groups and opportunities
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Journal (currently suspended)
- Discounted subscriptions to some other professional journals
- Opportunities to write, publish, present and participate in research
- Opportunities to serve on committees
- Use of library

Fee: £118 per annum

Retired Members

Former Professional or Clinical Associate members.

Application by letter to the Membership Committee.

Benefits:

- Free and discounted talks, workshops and short courses
- Special interest groups
- Opportunities for social networking
- Journal (currently suspended)
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Use of library

Fees: £60 per annum

Affiliate Members

People with a personal or professional interest in mental health, psychoanalysis and Jungian analysis and development of mind, not currently practicing in the field, e.g. doctors, nurses, social workers, others in the helping professions and academics; counsellors and psychotherapists without the qualifications to become a Clinical Associate.

Application requirements:

- Two references, one professional (if a member of a profession) and one personal
- CV
- Statement of intent not to bring WMIP into disrepute
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £25

Benefits:

- Free and discounted talks, workshops and short courses

- Special interest groups
- Opportunities for career development and exploration
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Journal (currently suspended)
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Use of library

Fees: £60 per annum

Honorary Members

By invitation to those who have shown long-term or outstanding commitment to WMIP.
No fee.