

Member of UK Council for Psychotherapy

Company Limited by Guarantee (No 2883306) Registered Charity (No 1031011)

Membership Categories

Professional Members

Psychoanalytical psychotherapists, Jungian analytical psychotherapists, group analysts, psychoanalysts and Jungian analysts who have qualified through the WMIP trainings or other recognised trainings which are eligible for registration with UKCP (CPJA college) or BPC; child psychotherapists registered with the Association of Child and Adolescent Psychotherapists (ACP).

Application requirements:

- Proof of qualification and registration with UKCP(CPJA)/BPC
- Two references, one from a UKCP(CPJA)/BPC registered supervisor
- Proof of insurance
- Proof of professional will
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending
- CV
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £50

Those qualifying for Professional membership on completion of a WMIP training will already have met many of these requirements as student members, and should contact the Membership Committee (membership@wmip.org) regarding a change of membership category.

Benefits:

- Registration/accreditation with UKCP(CPJA), BPC or ACP.
- UKCP re-accreditation
- Opportunity for inclusion on UKCP Supervisors Directory
- PEP-Web
- Inclusion in the WMIP online directory and referral service
- WMIP voting rights

- Free and discounted CPD provision
- CPD monitoring service
- Mediation service for dispute resolution through the Ethics Committee
- Special interest groups and opportunities
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Opportunities to teach, write, present and publish and participate in research
- Opportunity to become a Training Supervisor or a Training Therapist
- Opportunity to chair a WMIP committee or become a Trustee
- Use of library

Fees: £360 per annum

Clinical Associate Members

Those working clinically in private practice, in the NHS or a mental health charity as a psychotherapist, psychologist or counsellor, with a professional psychodynamic qualification and registered with UKCP, BPC, BPS or BACP. Those working in other modalities will be welcome to apply if they can demonstrate that they have a particular interest in analytic thinking or have completed further psychodynamic or analytic training.

Application requirements:

- Proof of qualification and registration with UKCP, BPC, BPS or BACP
- Two references, one from a UKCP, BPC, BPS or BACP registered supervisor
- CV
- Proof of insurance, or if employed, proof of employment
- Proof of professional will
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £50

Benefits:

- PEP-Web
- Inclusion in the WMIP online directory (at additional cost, under review pending website development)
- WMIP voting rights
- Free and discounted CPD provision
- Special interest groups
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Opportunities to write, publish and participate in research
- Opportunity for involvement as a member of a WMIP committee
- Use of library

Fees: £185 per annum

Student Members

Those currently engaged in one of the WMIP trainings or other recognised training which is eligible for registration with UKCP (CPJA college), BPC or ACP.

Application requirements (for those not undertaking a WMIP training):

- Proof of membership of a recognised training organisation (see above)
- Two references, one from a current training supervisor
- CV
- Proof of insurance (if applicable)
- Proof of professional will (if in private practice)
- Signed acceptance of WMIP Code of Ethics
- Statement of complaints past or pending
- Statement of reasons for wishing to join WMIP
- Application fee: £25

Benefits:

- PEP-Web
- WMIP voting rights
- Free and discounted CPD provision
- Inclusion in low-fee referral service
- Special interest groups and opportunities
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Opportunities to write, publish, present and participate in research
- Opportunities to serve on committees
- Use of library

Fee: £135 per annum

Retired Members

Former Professional or Clinical Associate members.

Application requirements:

- Application by letter to the Membership Committee

Benefits:

- Free and discounted talks, workshops and short courses
- Special interest groups
- Opportunities for social networking
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Use of library

Fees: £75 per annum

Affiliate Members

People with a personal or professional interest in mental health, psychoanalysis and Jungian analysis and development of mind, not currently practicing in the field, e.g. doctors, nurses, social workers, others in the helping professions and academics; counsellors and psychotherapists without the qualifications to become a Clinical Associate.

Application requirements:

- An interest shown in psychodynamic thinking through presence at an event, teaching session, or speaking to a WMIP member.
- Sign a memorandum of understanding with regards to safeguarding confidentiality of any clinical material used in events attended, and privacy of such events.
- No application fee.
- £60 a year membership (with some special 'half price' offers for those signing up at events)

Benefits:

- Access to West Midlands community of psychodynamic practitioners
- Free and discounted talks, workshops and short courses
- Opportunities for networking, social and professional
- Discounted subscriptions to some professional journals
- Use of library
- Opportunities for career development and exploration
- Route to Clinical Associate membership

Fees: £75 per annum

Honorary Members

By invitation to those who have shown long-term or outstanding commitment to WMIP.
No fee.

Change of category

Those wishing to change their membership category should apply to the Membership Committee at membership@wmip.org or by post.